1.2 SYSTEM DETAILS

1.2.1 EXISTING SYSTEM

- In the physical mode there is a Lot of Paper work and Complexity.
- It is also Time consuming process.
- There is a need of Warehouse for storage[e.g. case files]
- Notification is not available.
- Less of security.
- Risk of getting stolen or damage on Information.

1.2.2 PROPOSED SYSTEM

- This system will save process timing and get faster result.
- Remove the paper work.
- Get Notification(hearing date and all)
- Manage cases smoothly.
- Search process can faster.
- Reduce manual work.
- Information can be retrieved from anywhere.

1.3 SCOPE OF SYSTEM

- The scope of system is targeted to work of lawyer; the system is going to serve facilities that will help lawyer to manage work flow efficiently on online mode.
- Lawyer can easily access information of current or past cases from anywhere.
- Junior lawyer can set next court hearing date for lawyer, also add information or evidence to previous hearing date.
- Clients can also see the court hearing dates and other information of their case and get an appointment date for their meeting with lawyer and can get notifications regarding their case that are delivered by user.

1.4 OBJECTIVES

- The main objective of the system is to cut out the risk of damages on case information, like case files getting stolen or lost, document being subject to mold etc.
- Documents will be stored on online system that will reduce inefficiency of slower process and reduce the manual work and manpower also.
- Our system will basically remove all the disadvantages of the physical mode that is going on throughout the years, as well as provide advance functionalities that will make accessing of case information easy.
- The system will reduce the gap of communication between lawyer and clients.

CHAPTER – 2 PROPOSED SYSTEM REQUIREMENT GATHERING

2.1 STAKEHOLDERS OF SYSTEM

1. Admin Lawyer

- Admin Lawyer is responsible for the maintaining the whole system.
- Admin Lawyer can create and manage clients and junior lawyer's account and add or removethe information from the account or remove the account also.

2. Staff

- Staff means junior lawyers they are hired by the admin Lawyer.
- They are working under the main lawyer.
- Their main functionalities are – Add information, evidence of the cases, next hearing date,manage appointments.

3. Clients

- In a System client is a person who interacts with the system typically through an interface toextract some functional benefits.
- User can log in in our website and get all information related to their cases.
- They can see and access information at any time, also ask for appointment dates.

2.2 REQUIREMENT GATHERING TECHNIQUE USED

There are many techniques available for gathering the requirements. Techniques describe how tasks are performed under specific circumstances. The usefulness of a technique is determined by its need and the kind of advantage it offers in a particular project. There are some essential requirement gathering techniques that you must be aware of in order to manage the projects in a better way and run your businesssuccessfully are :

- Questionnaires
- Interview
- Observation
- Research
- Examining documentation

We used Interview technique for gathering the requirements of our system.

General Questions :

Q.1) What functions do you need in system?

Ans : Managing the staffs and clients account, add information, viewing client details.

Q.2) What type of problems they face in current Working process?

Ans : Currently we need to manage everything manually, so it is kind of time consuming and also the client needs to visit the firm physically for getting things done.

Q.3) Do you currently have a website? If so, what is/isn't working for you?

Ans : No

Q.4) Do you currently have any booking consultation system through which you can manage the bookings of the client?

Ans : No

Q.5) Are client's case reports are shared with them ?

Ans : Yes

Q.6) What type of system they are looking for?

Ans : Right now they are looking for one platform that provides services to clients and lawyers. They can easily interact with each other for case related work. Reduce the offline work and create an online system.

Q.7) Will you prefer your law services related work to be done online?

Ans : Yes

Q.8) Will you opt for getting the online appointment?

Ans : Yes

Q.9) Would you like to share the feedback of the law services which you used?

Ans : Yes

2.3 CONSOLIDATED LIST OF REQUIREMENTS

- Legal advice will also be provided and online appointment can also be booked using the system.
- Lawyer can easily access information of current or past cases from anywhere.
- Junior lawyer can set next court hearing date for lawyer, also add information or evidence to previous hearing date.
- Clients can also view their appointment status.
- Clients can get all the details related to their case through the website.

2.4 PROJECT DEFINITION

- We have come up with initiative idea which is not only helpful to the lawyer but also helpful to the clients.
- Clients can access their information at anytime and anywhere with the help of password.
- A lawyer can manage all of its work by using a single system.
- The role of the project is to provide web application that will help to lawyer to manage case information easily and stay in contact with clients.

CHAPTER – 3 SYSTEM MANAGEMENT AND PLANNING

3.1 FEASIBILITY STUDY

A feasibility study is carried out to select the best system that meets performance requirements. The main aim of the feasibility study activity is to determine whether it would be financially and technically feasible to develop the product. The feasibility study activity involves the analysis of the problem and collection of all relevant information relating to the product such as the different data items which would be input to the system, the processing required to be carried out on these data, the output data required to be produced by the system as well as various constraints on the behavior of the system.

There are aspects in the feasibility study portion of the preliminary investigation:

1. Technical Feasibility
2. Economic Feasibility
3. Operational Feasibility

3.1.1 TECHNICAL FEASIBILITY

The technical feasibility study compares the level of technology available in the software development firm and the level of technology required for the development of the product. Here the level of technology consists of the programming language. The hardware resources, other software tools etc.

Internet is required to use the system. Our system consists of,

- The facility to produce outputs in a given time.
- Response time under certain conditions.
- It just requires window operating system and normal browser to use our system. Hence, the proposed system is technically feasible.

3.1.2 ECONOMIC FEASIBILITY

The economic feasibility study evaluates the cost of the software development against the ultimate income or benefits gets from the developed system. There must be scopes for profit after the successful completion of the project.

It is easy to use and understand therefore there is no need to appoint any operator to use the system.

No special hardware integration is required by the system. Hence, the proposed system is economically feasible.

3.1.3 OPERATIONAL FEASIBILITY

Operational feasibility is a measure of how well a proposed system solves the problems, and takes advantage of the opportunities identified during scope definition and how it satisfies the requirements identified in the requirements analysis phase of system development.

User can easily operate (use) without any type of training. This makes system more technically feasible.

Hence, the proposed system is operational feasible.

3.2 HARDWARE – SOFTWARE REQUIREMENT

- Software Requirement :

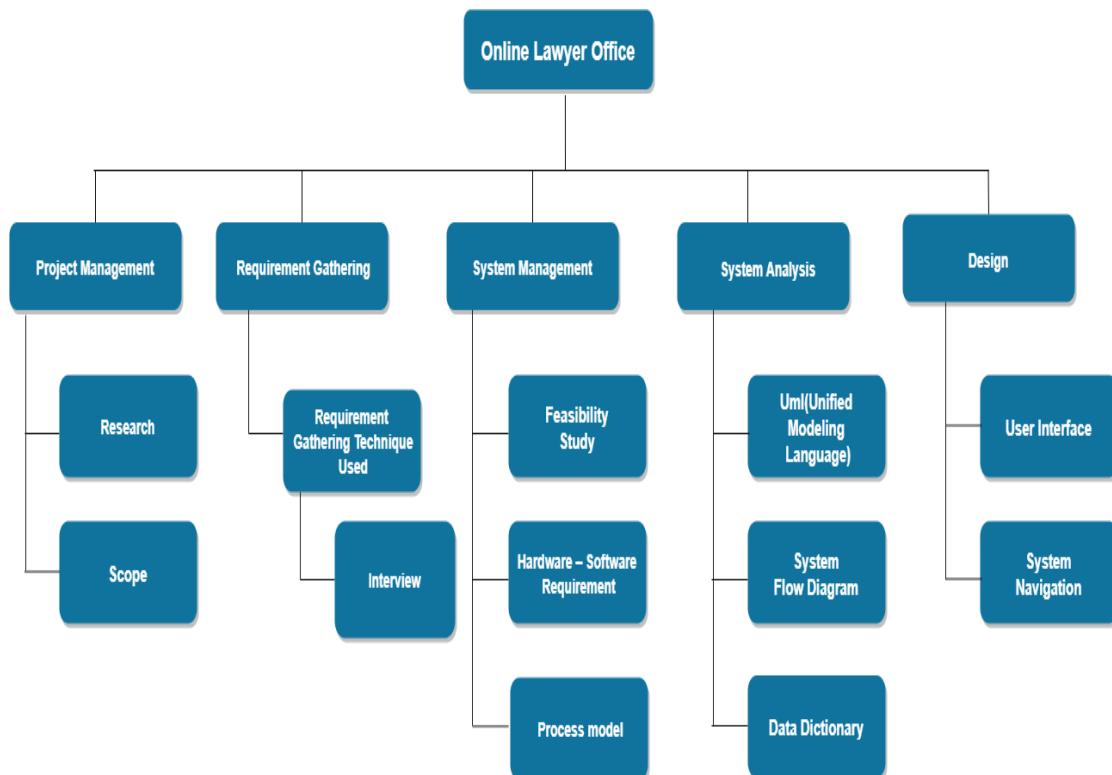

Frontend	CSS , HTML , Bootstrap
Backend	Python , Django
Tools	Sublime text
Database	MySQL

- Hardware Requirement :

RAM	2 GB or above
Hard Disk	1 GB or above
Processor	Core i3 or higher

3.4 PROCESS MODEL

Incremental Model :

When initial requirements are reasonably well defined, and the overall scope of the development effort prevents a purely linear process. A need to expand a limited set of new functions to alater system release.

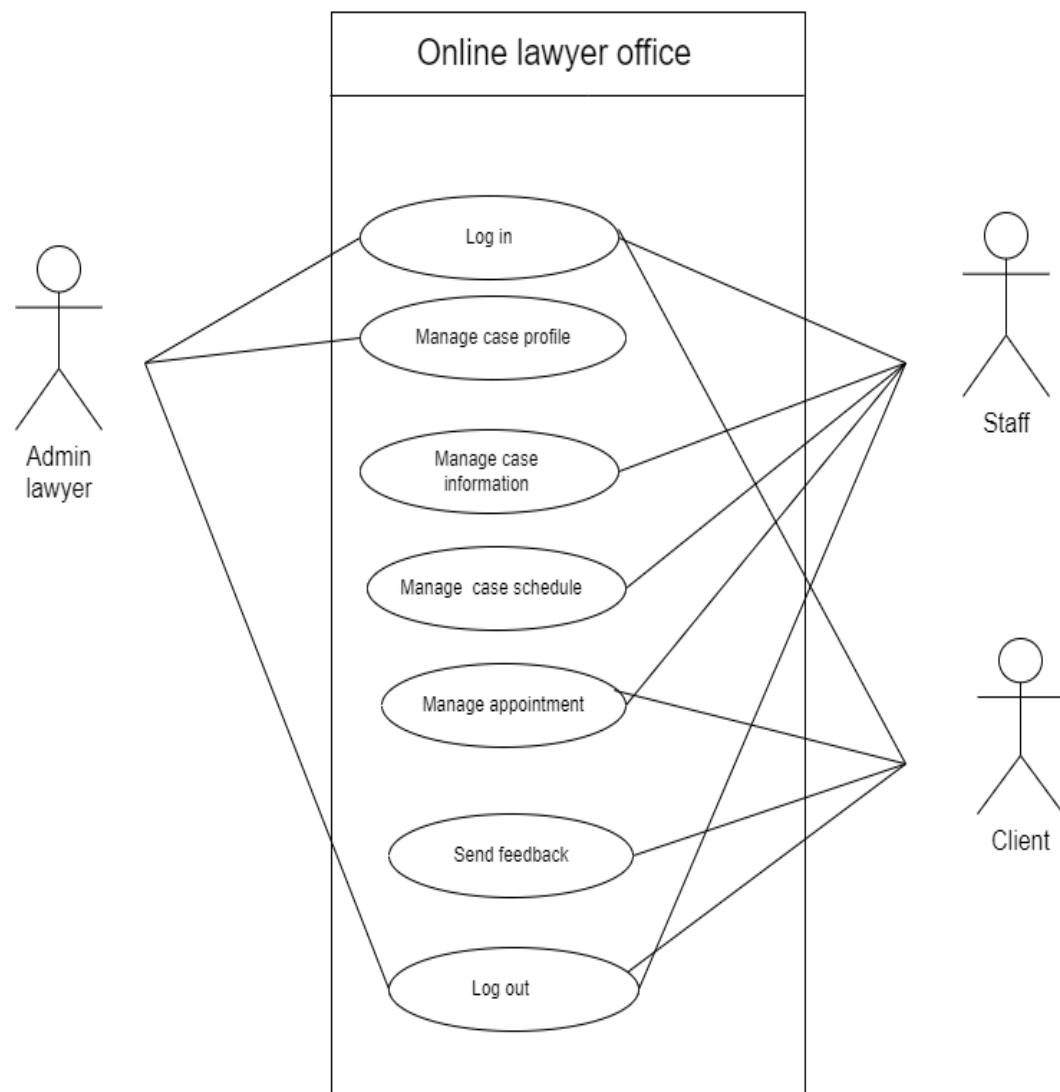

- It combines elements of linear and parallel process flows. Each linear sequence produces deliverable increments of the software.
- The first increment is often a core product with many supplementary features. Users use it and evaluate it with more modifications to better meet the needs.
- Suited for large projects, less expensive to the change of requirements as they support customer interactions with each increment.
- Initial versions of the software are produced early, which facilitates customer evaluation and feedback.
- It doesn't fit into small projects, or projects that waterfall are best suited for; A structured process with a detailed, and accurate description of the system.
